

Commitment Implementation Plan Update

REF. NO	COMMITMENT	MILESTONE	STATUS MILESTONE	DESCRIPTION OF THE STATUS OF MILESTONES	REASONS FOR OVER OR UNDER ACHIEVEMENT	NEXT STEPS
1	Government to ensure progressive increase in women's political participation at all levels of government, review the Constitution to allow election of MMDCEs in district level elections (either on partisan basis or non-partisan basis) and provide opportunities for the political participation of Persons with Disabilities	Government to ensure progressive increase in women's political participation at all levels of government, review the Constitution to allow election of MMDCEs in district level elections (either on partisan basis or non-partisan basis) and provide opportunities for the political participation of Persons with Disabilities	-	Number of women/PWDs Assembly Members divided by the total number of District Assembly Members multiplied by 100	Absence of enabling policy and guidelines to: 1. Promote women with disabilities to be elected as MMDCEs in district level elections (either on partisan basis or non-partisan basis)  2. Provide opportunities for the political participation of persons with disabilities	The Council is currently looking for funding to implement activities as contained in the NMDTPF 2022-2025 to empower women with disabilities to effectively participate and vie for positions in the upcoming local government elections
2	Presentation of the Persons with Disabilities (PWDs) Re-enactment and its accompanying Legislative Instrument to Parliament by January 2023.	Presentation of the Persons with Disabilities (PWDs) Re-enactment and its accompanying Legislative Instrument to Parliament by January 2023.	Persons with Disability Bill, 2022 drafted  The Technical Committee for the Review of the Act sat to provide the needed additional information requested by the Attorney General	Persons with Disability Re-Enactment Bill and accompanying legislative instrument passed	Lack of funding to continue with the process so as to be able to present the Persons with Disability Bill, 2022 before parliament.	The Council is exploring funding opportunities to continue with the process including stakeholders' consultation on the Persons with Disability Bill, 2022.
3	Parliament passes the Re-enactment by June 2023 to enable PWDs enjoy all their rights, including full participation in national and local level decision	Parliament passes the Re-enactment by June 2023 to enable PWDs enjoy all their rights, including full participation in national and local level decision	Persons with Disability Bill, 2022 drafted	Persons with Disability Re-Enactment Bill and accompanying legislative instrument passed	Lack of funding to continue the relevant process so as to be able to present the Persons with Disability Bill, 2022 before parliament	The Council is exploring funding opportunities to continue with the process including stakeholders' consultation on the Persons with Disability Bill, 2022.

	making without discrimination.	making without discrimination.
4	Decentralize the National Council on Persons with Disability in 8 regions of Ghana by end of June 2023.	Number of regions with decentralised National Council for Persons with Disability	Draft Regional and District Office Manual developed	Number of regions with decentralised National Council for Persons with Disability	Lack of funding to finalize the draft manual for further activities to be carried out in the establishment of regional and district offices Inability to secure Financial Clearance to augment the staff strength for the regional and district levels	The Council is looking for funding to finalise the draft Manual. Initial engagement with MDAs to second some of their staff to the Council at the Regional and District levels
5	Link the disaggregated data base platform of the National Council for Persons with Disability with the National Identification Authority data base and the Open Data Platform for tax purposes and reliable data on persons with disability to inform policy formulation and implementation.	Link the disaggregated data base platform of the National Council for Persons with Disability with the National Identification Authority data base and the Open Data Platform for tax purposes and reliable data on persons with disability to inform policy formulation and implementation.	NITA undertook extensive assessment of the Councils IT capacity and disaggregated database system to inform the operationalisation of the data linkages system.	Linking of the data platforms necessary for tax purposes and generating reliable data on persons with disability to inform policy formulation and implementation	Delay in funding opportunities to continue the process	The Council continues to engage development partners for the implementation of activities to upgrade the Council's database system and link it to the Ghana Open Data Platform and the National Identification Authority database.
6	Engage in public awareness activities about the open data portal with all stakeholders and make portal accessible to persons with disability	Engage in public awareness activities about the open data portal with all stakeholders and make portal accessible to persons with disability	The Council had stakeholders' consultation with organisations of &for persons with disabilities, NITA, Ghana Digital Acceleration Project (GDAP) and Special Schools for Persons with Disabilities to ascertain the level of accessibility challenges in accessing open data portals.	Major open data portal is accessible to persons with disabilities	Delay in funding opportunities to continue with the process	The Council continues to engage development partners for the implementation of activities to make portals accessible to persons with disabilities

